

TEST QUESTIONS: Barbecue Safety

Your Name:		Date:
Company:		IEC #:

- 1. When you change your propane cylinder for your barbecue or at the start of the barbecue season you should complete this three-step safety check:
  - a) Clean, Light, Check
  - b) Clean, Check, Test
  - c) Check, Test, Light
  - d) Light, Check, Replace (if needed)

- 2. After using your barbecue, turn the gas valve off first, then turn off the burner controls to ensure no gas is left in the connecting hose.
  - a) True
  - b) False

- 3. Facts about propane include: (Circle all that apply)
  - a) "rotten eggs" smell is added to propane because it is odourless
  - b) Propane is heavier than air
  - c) Propane can cause serious health problems or death if inhaled
  - d) It is against the law to fill an expired propane cylinder
  - e) All of the above

- 4. Built up grease on the burners or at the base of the barbecue can cause fires. Which of the following should you NOT do to extinguish a grease fire in your barbecue?
  - a) If you can safely reach the knobs, turn the propane off for the grill
  - b) Throw salt, baking soda or sand on the fire
  - c) Throw water on the fire
  - d) Use a fire extinguisher on the fire

- 5. When using charcoal for your barbecue, be sure to: (Circle all that apply)
  - a) Store extra charcoal in a metal container with a tight-fitting lid to keep it dry
  - b) Never use gasoline as an aid to ignite charcoal briquettes
  - c) Barbecue in a well-ventilated area as it produces carbon monoxide when burned
  - d) Use as much charcoal as possible to create maximum heat
  - e) All of the above